

Book Title: A Wander with a Little Wonder: Child-Centric Case Witnessing

Author: Dr. Dinesh Chauhan

Published by: Philosia Publication (Dr.Urvi Chauhan)

Dimension (In Inches): 9.25" by 7"(Approx), Hard Bound, Stitched. Pages: 268

About the book: Over the years to develop a system of case taking that Dinesh intended to be, ageless, timeless, beyond any personality and more importantly Human Centric, he develops his own Art of case taking (Case Witnessing Process) that helps to reach the deepest core of the patient with a relative ease. A Wander with a Little Wonder: Child-Centric Case Witnessing explores the efficacy of the process in treating children. The entire process is completely scientific and reproducible. The first half of the book, Talk the talk, discusses key ideas and concepts and examines the homeopaths role as a catalyst in case witnessing. The second half, Walk the Talk, presents fascinating case examples.

The entire effort behind this book is to provide A to Z of the Case witnessing Process (including various techniques that help unearth the difficult cases) that is specialized for each individual child (Hence-Child-Centric) and which is scientific, easy to follow and reproducible by all.

The contents discussed in first half of the book (Talk the Talk) are:

1. The Child: The Purest Form of Energy.	6. Fear: A Window into the Inner Pattern of a Child
2. Child Energy: A Unique Pattern; Child Disease Energy: A Unique Altered Pattern	7. Dreams: Royal Roads into the Childs Subconscious
3. Journey into Witnessing the Altered Pattern in a Child: Prerequisites	8. Unfolding the Childs Altered Pattern through Art
4. Listening: The Essence of all Techniques; Witnessing: The Mother of all Techniques	9. Sense in Non-Sense through Internal Witnessing
5. The Case Witnessing Process: A Child-Centric Approach	10. The Womb Connection

Testimonial upon book:

"Homeopathy follows natural laws, and gradually Dinesh is unveiling them for us. He is an ardent teacher and a thorough prescriber. In this book we can wander with him through his world of homeopathic wonders."

-Jenni Tree

“Dr. Dinesh Chauhan's new book is a treasure and a guide for homoeopaths and lay persons alike. Dr. Chauhan explores the realms of the subconscious and the inner experience of the child. His comments on the children's expressions of their experiences and perceptions offer an experience of subtle awareness, and readers will emerge from reading the book with a sense of having returned to their inherent purity, freedom, and integral awareness. Through this book, I gained a sense of Dr. Chauhan's scientific intuition and later found that my own case witnessing abilities had been enhanced by what I learned from it. I am confident that this book will help practitioners to expand their capacity to more insightfully understand their clients.”

- Rebecca Williams